Did You Know?

Did you know that the City of Winchester was awarded national recognition as an All-America City in 2005? "The Award celebrates vibrant, resourceful communities where neighbors pitch in together; communities with a diverse collection of talents and people who do not dwell on the problems of the past, but focus instead on the opportunities of the present and possibilities for the future." Each year, the National Civic League chooses only 10 communities nation-wide for this prestigious award.

2008 City of Winchester Calendar

The City of Winchester has produced this 2008 calendar to guide you through the services provided by your local government and the departments that handle the services. You will also find phone numbers you need when questions or issues arise.

This is a beautiful city with dedicated public employees ready to serve you. We look forward to a bright and promising year!
